Winchester—Although a coroner's jury gave a verdict of suicide, many friends of the late Luther Colfelt, of Shenandoah county, recently found dying in the western section of that county, are by no means convinced he took his own life. Colfelt was said to have arrived from Pennsylvania with a large amount of money in his possession, yet when the body was found there were only a few dollars in his pocket. He was found with a bullet hole above his right ear, and a pistol containing three empty shells was found some distance away on the left side of the body.

Gordonsville—Getting at rest reports that the 1924 Orange county fair would not be held on the newly-acquired grounds, Secretary Edward V. Breeden has issued a statement to the effect that work is proceeding rapidly and that all would be in readiness by the opening date, October 21. The concrete foundations for the immense exhibit hall have been completed as well as the preliminary work on the agricultural hall, the dairy, barn and the poultry house. The fair management also states that four days will be given this year to the fair, October 21-24.

Newport News—Steven Bromley, Jr., aeronautical engineer with the national advisory committee, was instantly killed, and Smith J. DePrance, American ace, major in the reserve service, and general aeronautical engineer with the advisory committee, received injuries which are expected to result in his death at Langley Field, when their U. S. A. training airplane dropped to the waters of Back River from an altitude of a little more than 2,000 feet, Bromley, who was making his first flight, had his neck broken, and DePrance, is injured, about the head and body.

* * *

Salem—William Abraham Cronk, 74, was instantly killed when hit by a Norfolk & Western freight train at the Union Street crossing here. Cronk was on the way to his work and attempted to cross the tracks when the gates were down. Being deaf it is supposed he did not hear the approaching train nor warning bells and whistle as he slowly walked into the death trap. He was native of Floyd county and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Lida Hendrickson, of Salem; Mrs. E. M. Reynolds, of Pincastle; A. F. and C. C. Cronk, of Roanoke.

Alexandria—James J. Taylor, 47, of Washington—was thrown from a big touring car and his jugular vein severed, cyrus en route to the hospital. Cities from the Windshield served the victim. Alfred T. Hill, driver of the machine, of Washington, told a coroner's jury that there were six Washington men on a pleasure drive in the machine, including himself and that just before the accident Taylor grabbed the wheel of his car and before he knew it Taylor was knocked out. The machine collided with a fence and a guard rail twelve feet long and two inches thick crashed through the machine. The radiator was demolished. All other occupants escaped. After the inquest Hill was held by the police on $1,000 bail on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. All of the men testified they had been drinking near-beer just before leaving Washington.

St. Petersburg—Five people crawled from under the wrecked body of a heavy sedan on the Petersburg-Richmond highway, the Virginia State Highway Patrol has learned, after five miles from this city, none seriously injured, after their machine had left the concrete of the road and turned over. It is understood that three men and two women occupied the car, which had been stripped of license plates. Occupants of the car are said to have called friends in Petersburg by telephone and to have come to this city, where they spent the night, the accident occurring about 5 o'clock. It is believed that the car was going to Richmond via Chesterfield, way of Richmond Cemetery. The automobile is said to have left the road in an attempt to regain the road, the driver evidently turned sharply and the car careened to the left and somersaulted to the bottom of a ditch. It was found lying on its side, a total wreck.

JESUS TALKS WITH A SAMARITAN WOMAN

LESSON TEXT—John 4:4-42.

GOLDEN TEXT—"God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."—John 4:24.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Talks With a Woman.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus and a Woman of Samaria.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Won the Samaritans.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Teaching of Jesus Concerning Himself.

I. The Occasion (vv. 4-6).

The growing popularity of Jesus aroused the envious opposition of the Pharisees, which obliged Him to leave Judea and go into Galilee. There was another way to reach Galilee, used by many Jews to avoid contact with the despised Samaritans, the eastern side of the Jordan. He must needs go through Samaria in order to find this poor sinful woman and the needy citizens of Sychar. The great necessity which was upon Him was to seek and to save that which was lost (Luke 19:10). The wearied Jesus sitting at Jacob's well to speak to this poor, lost woman gives us a picture of the divine human Savior in His work of seeking lost humanity.

II. The Testimony of Christ to the Samaritans (vv. 7-41).

1. Discloses His Identity to the Woman of Samaria (vv. 7-26). This is a fine example of personal evangelism.

(1) A Favor Asked (vv. 7-9). He tactfully made a request which appealed to the woman's sympathy. Not only did the thirst of the weary traveler appeal to her but the fact that He being a Jew asked a favor of her showed His sympathy for her. In introducing the conversation He referred to that which was uppermost in her mind, namely water. This was the Teacher's point of contact. He also passed from earthly water to the water of everlasting life, which was Himself. His aim was to bridge the chasm which separated them.

(2) Jesus' Tender Dealing With the Woman (vv. 10-15). His first appealed to her curiosity by declaring, "If thou knewest the gift of God" (v. 10). He knew the deep unrest of the soul of that sinful woman as she went on her way. He knew that if she really knew Him she would believe on Him and be saved from her sins. Therefore, the first thing was to get her attention. He followed this appeal to her curiosity by a promise which directed her attention to her deepest needs. The deepest need of human souls only can satisfy. There is real and lasting satisfaction in Him and His gifts. The woman's reply, "Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not," is the inarticulate cry of her heart.

(3) The Woman Convicted of Her Sins (vv. 15-19). Jesus succeeded in arousing her interest, but she did not really understand Him. Before she can understand what the water of life is she must be convicted of her sins. He skillfully gave the command which brought her face to face with the facts of her life which she was unwilling to confess.

(4) The Problem of Worship Submitted to Christ (vv. 2-24). This she did as soon as she perceived Him to be a prophet. This indicates that He was succeeding in bringing her mind to spiritual things. Jesus, knowing the inner life of this woman, tells her of the dual time, even then present, when true worshipers could hold intercourse with God anywhere. He showed her that the place of worship is unimportant, but the all-important thing is to have the true conception of God as brought through the Jews. He exposed the folly of a religion of form only and showed that acceptable worship depends upon the condition of the heart.

(5) Discloses His Identity to the Chinese Scholar (vv. 40, 41). When they heard the testimony of the woman they hurried Jesus to come among them. Though they heard her testimony, their belief was due to Christ's own words.

III. The Testimony of the Samaritans (vv. 27-42).

1. The Woman of Samaria Witnesses for Christ (vv. 27-30). As soon as she was converted she became an enthusiastic missionary. This is as it ought to be and always will be. The soul that realizes Jesus cannot be still (John 1:41-45). The result of her testimony was that many believed on Him.

2. The Samaritans Witness for Christ (v. 42). They declared, "We know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the World."

Begin Upon Yourself

If you must be severe, be sure that you begin with your severity upon yourself. Clean up your own life, and then with the beam taken out of your own eye you are in position to take the mote out of your brethren's eye.—Gospel Herald.

If Willing to Repent

Dead churches cannot bring forth a genuine revival, but living churches can, by God's help, if people are willing to repent.—Gospel Herald.

A Sure Cure

A certain long-faced (also cynical) man says he cures himself of wanting someone to talk to by listening for fifteen minutes to the conversation of people who have someone to talk to.

VERA

"The melancholy days" are upon us once more. Farmers are busy cutting tobacco—the next thing on program will be harvesting the apples—a meager crop, around here, and getting the wheat in ship-shape for seed—if work keeps one from getting sick. Farmers should be a young and frisky lot.

The tuberculosis clinic held at Vera on the 27th was well attended—a great many were turned away as the time was too short in which to examine them all.

Will Carter has the contract for keeping the public road from Vera to the Buckingham line. It is order. He has bought the house, store and two acres of the "Rose Bower" farm. We haven't heard definitely, but surmise he will move there to be nearer his work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson and daughter, Helen, of Lynchburg, and Master Raymond Foster, of Bedford, spent one day last week with the Kinneys.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Reynolds and their four charming young daughters are calling on old friends in this neighborhood Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Stefans and little Miss Antrom, who left for Miami, Florida, via Baltimore, thence by boat—have arrived at their destination and pronounce it very rough voyage. The boat encountered a very rough hurricane, sweeping up from the West Indies—the captain of the boat said it was the roughest weather they had had for 13 years. Mrs. Stefans is very much pleased with Florida.

Mr. Dowel Foster of Littleton, N. C., spent the week-end with friends here.

Mrs. H. B. Foster and little daughter Marguerite of Littleton, N. C., who have been visiting Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kinney, left for their home Saturday.

Lester Harvey of Appomattox was out trying our good roads one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kinney and children and Mrs. Jerome Menefee motored to Lynchburg Labor day—they met some friends from Danville, and spent the day picnicing and having a good time generally.

Mrs. Charles Grow and daughter, Miss Florence, are visiting relatives at Stapleton.

Mr. Aubrey Carter who is working for the N.&W. R. R. at Damascus, spent Labor day with his home people here.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Wilkerson of Lynchburg, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Sam Megginson, last week. Little Nancy Megginson accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Nutticomb of Lynchburg, spent Monday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrett of Lynchburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Garrett of Richmond, spent Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garrett.

Lucy and Edith Megginson, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Spradlin of Lynchburg, returned home Sunday.

Charles Wallace, of Gladstone spent Labor Day with the family of Mr. Nuttlecombe.

We regret to note the illness of Mr. Lewis Hatcher.

Dr. Turner, of Brookneal, and a party are camping in the neighborhood. They have 28 fox hounds with them. The few foxes left had better look out. The Doctor would be wise to join the red fox club, organized by some of our fox hunters, their object being to stock the county with red foxes—then they will have some sure enough sport.

HIXBURG

A family reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harvey last Sunday. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Abbitt and children of Clover, Rev. Benj. B. Abbitt pastor Farmly Memorial Baptist church Jersey City, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Abbitt of Oskville, H. W. Abbitt of Wilson, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson Hixburg, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Terry Pamplin.

All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Abbitt, the departed parents who are held in loving memory, were present except Geo. D. Abbitt of Camden, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey did everything possible for the comfort and pleasure of their guests. A most bountiful dinner was served consisting of meats, vetetables, salads etc. courses. This was a most enjoyable occasion and will be long remembered by those present.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of attending the Hixburg meeting and listening to the able Evangelist, J. Saunders Jones. He is numbered among the best of our Baptist preachers. Ben, is so full of the Holy Spirit that one wonder he had a glorious meeting. There were many additions to the Presbyterian church as well as the Baptist. The Kneeling Evangelist made his home for the week with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson May the prayers of God's people follow him as he travels from state to state winning this old world for Christ.

EVERGREEN

Hot, dry and dusty, we are in the midst of a very serious drouth, no rain for several weeks although there have been good rains within two and three miles of us. Hope we too will catch a few sprinkles.

The housekeepers are busy canning and preserving the bountiful peach crop. We hope they can make up for the shortage in apple butters.

Miss Crystine Clark, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Ida Bell Evans, most of the summer, returned to her home in Lynchburg, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rad Knuckles who have been visiting the latter's uncle, J. L. Clark, and other relatives here, have returned to their home in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baikie and little daughter of Roanoke, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Farrar.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Farrar were week-end guests of friends in Lynchburg and Clarkton.

Little T. T. Jr. arrived at the home of Mrs. T. T. Evans Wednesday night.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Lawrence Young, who has been so very ill at Baptist Hospital in Lynchburg, is improving. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Revival services will begin at the Methodist church here Sunday. We hope all will attend that can.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ransom of Lynchburg, were guests of Mrs. Joel Inge Saturday night.

Miss Louise Ransom of Lynchburg, was guest of friends here last week.

Buckingham Club

The Buckingham county boys and girls Agriculture club rally held at the Buckingham High School building last Friday was a big success. Four organized clubs were represented by about fifty boys and girls and their club leaders. Six different demonstration teams gave the following demonstration: two teams in selecting seed corn, two in selecting and training poultry for exhibition, one in preserving eggs and one in feeding baby chicks. County Agent, Byrne, of Appomattox and District Agent Bruce were the judges and selected 4 team of two girls from the Arvonia club as first in the competition. This team was requested by Mr. Byrne to come with County Agent, Homaker, of their county to the Appomattox-Buckingham fair Sept. 13th and give the same demonstration They agreed to come.

Firestone
Steel Cord Tubes
Protect Car

The steam-welding process is exclusively Firestone. It is enduring despite friction and heat. Makes the tube continuous as if it were actually one piece.

Steam-welded tubes aid in maintaining the uniform air-pressure which is essential to long mileage from Balloon Tires.
